Soaring double volume ceilings and light-filled living space combine with heritage elements in this spectacular reimagining of an original 1920s Bondi cottage. A luxurious eco-friendly family retreat, the architecturally designed NE-facing home is a truly original offering, awash with coastal ambience and high-end finishes, presenting a rare opportunity in one of Bondi's most coveted neighbourhoods.

Three spacious bedrooms are secluded peacefully to the front, as the home expands into the breathtaking light-filled living space, where rich textural elements are enhanced by the soaring ceilings. Custom spotted gum cabinetry, stainless-steel counters and a concrete island feature in the chef's kitchen next to an atrium-style dining space, while a
